REMARKS

On 11-13-16 at 0759 hours, Officer Kraeger and I were dispatched to 99 Union St, the YMCA, for an alleged attack with a baseball bat with Mr. Frank stating that he had been hit in the head with the baseball bat by a Hispanic male. There was an unidentified male in the third floor hallway who stated that he had heard Mr. Frank say he was hit in the head with a baseball bat, but that no one else had been in his room or on the floor. He stated that he believed Mr. Frank to be heavily intoxicated and that he had fallen in his room.

Upon arrival on the scene, Mr. Frank was in his room, #328. He yelled for us to come in. When we did, he was seated to our left on his bed bleeding from a cut over his left eye. Also, as I entered, directly in front of me was a chair with a clear plastic bag of multiple buds of suspected marijuana in plain view. When Mr. Frank observed me point this out, he came off of the bed and made multiple attempts to take it from me, stating "Give me my weed back!". I had to push him away from me, as he was also heavily intoxicated. He then sat back down on the bed. Also in plain view, on his side table, was a multi colored glass marijuana pipe, which I seized after the incident was over.

The room was trashed with the lamp being smashed on the floor and a table knocked over, as if Mr. Frank had fallen over possibly due to intoxication.

As we awaited emergency personnel to arrive, Officer Kraeger went into the hallway to allow them access. When he did, Mr. Frank opened his side table drawer and removed a large bottle of whiskey that was ¾ empty. He opened it and began to move as if to drink from it. I instructed him not to drink this. He told me "Go fuck yourself!". I then moved to take the bottle away from him as he attempted to drink it. We struggled for the bottle and I was able to get it from him. Emergency Personnel arrived. They stated that the cut over his eye appeared to be from falling and striking his head, as on the knocked over table and lamp. He initially refused to be helped by the emergency personnel but finally conceded. The fire department personnel each got under one of his shoulders to assist him out of the room.

At this point, he decided to stop assisting and intentionally laid down in the center of the hallway. He refused to get up. They then picked him up again and he then intentionally kept his feet lifted off of the ground in order to make it as difficult as possible to move him. He was finally placed into the ambulance for transport to Middlesex Hospital.

At the hospital, I was present when the nurse asked Mr. Frank about the injury to his head. He stated that he had fallen and knew that if he called 911 and said he was hit with a baseball bat, they would have to bring him to the hospital and he could get breakfast because he was hungry.

He was released to the hospital on an MSC for Disorderly Conduct, Interfering With An Officer, Possession of Marijuana (there is a daycare in the same building), Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and Misuse of 911 with a court date of 11/30/16 in GA 9.

The green plant material field tested a positive color reaction for THC with a NARK #8 Duquenois Reagent Field Test Kit and had a TAW of 4.41 grams. This and the marijuana pipe were then placed into property as evidence.

Allondra Foster was identified, by the victim, as one of two people that attacked the victim at 611 South Main Street, McDonald's Restaurant. Foster was known to the victim as they had been co-workers at McDonalds.

The victim had obvious bruising and swelling to her nose area and had an abrasion on her right wrist. The victim provided a sworn, written statement, in which she identified Foster as the one that had grabbed her by the hair and thrown her to the ground during the incident. A surveillance video of the incident existed and I viewed it personally. The video shows Foster approaching the victim in the parking lot and almost immediately after they begin to interact, Foster starts to physically engage the victim and is seen throwing her into a parked car and then engages the victim on the ground. Foster was aided by another female, later identified as I (sister), who also made physical contact with the victim as seen on the video.

During the altercation, the parked vehicle sustained a dent to the drivers side rear of the body, that was caused with Foster threw the victim into the vehicle.

Foster was arrested and charged with Breach of Peace 2nd, 53a-181, and Criminal Mischief 3rd, 53a-117. She was assigned a court date of 11-21-16, issued a misdemeanor summons and released.

Brianna Foster was identified, by her own admission, as one of two people that was involved in a physical altercation with the victim at 611 South Main Street, McDonald's Restaurant.

The victim had obvious bruising and swelling to her nose area and had an abrasion on her right wrist. The victim provided a sworn, written statement, in which referred to Foster as an unknown black female that aided another female in assaulting her. The victim stated that Foster, again referred to in the statement as an unknown black female, had hit her while she was on the ground.

A surveillance video of the incident existed and I viewed it personally. The video shows Foster approaching the victim, with another female, identified as (sister) in the parking lot and almost immediately after they begin to interact, Foster starts to physically engage the victim and is seen engaging the victim on the ground.

Brianna had admitted to officers that she had been involved in a physical fight with the victim, but claimed to only get involved after she was struck by the victim, who was currently fighting with her sister in the parking lot. The video that I viewed does not back up Brianna's story.

Foster was arrested and charged with Breach of Peace 2nd, 53a-181. She was assigned a court date of 11-21-16, issued a misdemeanor summons and released.

Heather Foster was identified by a victim of an assault that was perpetrated by Foster's two daughters at 611 South Main Street. The victim would provide a sworn, written statement, in which she stated that Heather Foster was present during the altercation and was yelling at her and possibly recording the fight. 611 South Main Street is where the victim works and Heather Foster went there with her two daughters, who admitted that they were going there to confront the victim about social media messages/posts.

I personally view video of the incident, in which Foster is seen standing near the fight between her two daughters and the victim. Although there is no sound on the video, Foster is seen pointing and appears to be yelling. Even after the physical altercation ended, Foster is still seen point and appears to be yelling at the victim.

Foster eventually admitted to officers that she knew that her daughters were going to confront the victim about the social media messages and decided to go with them.

Foster was arrested and charged with Breach of Peace 2nd, 53a-181. She was assigned a court date of 11-21-16, issued a misdemeanor summons and released.

On 11-17-2016 at approximately 0812 hours I, Officer Thompson, was dispatched to 128 Summerhill Rd. for an overdose.

Upon arrival South district fire fighters and Hunters ambulance EMT's were on scene and attempting to resuscitate Juan Melendez. Narcan was administered to Melendez after he suffered from an apparent heroin overdose.

Officer Kraeger was on scene and located heroin paraphernalia inside of Melendez's wallet. He found a plastic straw and wax paper commonly used for packaging heroin. The wax paper had the stamp "Diesel" with a picture of a gas pump. The paraphernalia was brought to headquarters and tagged as evidence.

I followed up with Melendez at the hospital who was now awake and stable. I asked him what happened and he stated he took a hit of heroin when he woke up. This was consistent with the straw and papers located in his wallet.

I then ran Melendez through dispatch and it was discovered he had two active out of New Britain PD. After Melendez was discharged from Middlesex hospital he was transported to Middletown PD for processing. He was charged with violation of CGS 21a-267, Possession of drug paraphernalia. He was held on a $25,000 surety bond and will be arraigned on 11-18-2016 at GA 9. Melendez was identified by his CT drivers license.

On 11/10/16 at approximately 1614hrs Officer Ward and I (Officer Wasilewski) were dispatched to 127 Grand Street apartment # 303 for a loud noise complaint. I have had previous interactions with the complainant as well as the accused in apartment 403. Due to previous interactions with both parties I requested the assistance of a supervisor. A short time later Sergeant Prokop arrived on scene.

Officer Ward, Sergeant Prokop and I entered the apartment complex and waited for the complainant to let us through the locked vestibule. The complainant, , explained to Officers that she and her husband are having an ongoing problem with a resident (Holly Bartolotta) in the apartment above them (apt #403). I explained to , that I was familiar with the ongoing issue and had taken one of her complaints a few weeks earlier. / stated she had proof that Bartolotta was banging on her floor causing / s lights and chandelier to shake and almost fall off of the ceiling. She then showed Sergeant Prokop and I an approximately 2 minute video on her cell phone. The video was showing the chandelier shake as someone upstairs banged loudly on their floor. The banging was so loud that it seemed as though someone was hitting the floor with a very heavy object. [redacted] stated she had already tried to get a restraining order against Bartolotta but the court stated she did not have enough proof to warrant one. [redacted] explained she and her husband were the managers of the building and were also in the process of evicting her.

Sergeant Prokop, Officer Ward, and I went up to the fourth floor and knocked on Bartolotta's door. Bartolotta answered the door and immediately became agitated by our presence. I asked her what had occurred earlier between her and the resident below. Bartolotta was loudly yelling that she had an ongoing problem and admitted to Officers that she had been banging on the floor. She claimed the resident below was banging on her ceiling so hard she was lying on her bed and could "feel it under my ass!" She also stated her cats were too scared to go anywhere in the house because of the banging from the people below. Bartolotta stated she bangs on her floor when she thinks they are being too loud and said there were no laws saying she could not bang on her floor whenever she wanted. I explained to her that there is not reason why their confrontations always had to resort to each of them banging on the ceilings and floors and continuing to do so could end in possible arrest. I explained to her that there were laws in place such as breach of peace and disorderly conduct for ongoing behavior such as this. Bartolotta stated "Well that's fine. Arrest me for that and she better get arrested too!" Sergeant Prokop explained to her that at the moment we did not have any proof that [redacted] had done anything wrong. [redacted] however had video proof that she was banging on the floor for several minutes to cause annoyance and alarm to [redacted] and her husband. Due to this being a ongoing issue Sergeant Prokop explained that she would be issued a misdemeanor summons.

Officer Ward asked Bartolotta for her ID. She stated she did not have it on her and it was in her car. She claimed she was disabled and could not get it because she had chronic fatigue. Bartolotta stated "Well go ahead and give me a ticket because I talk to Heather and I talk to Lieutenant Maturo". Sergeant Prokop told Bartolotta that we would issue Alejandro a summons as well if she could provide proof that she had been banging as well. Bartolotta stated she did not have any proof. I asked Bartolotta if she would be getting her ID or if we would have to get it for her in her vehicle. Bartolotta's son then came outside and stated he would get her ID. Bartolotta told him "Wait a minute!" She then walked into her apartment and returned seconds later and provided her ID. It was clear that she was aware her ID was not in her vehicle as she initially stated.

Bartolotta was issued misdemeanor summons (MC 397027) for violation of CGS 53a-182 Disorderly Conduct. She as assigned a court date of 11/22/16 at 0900hrs and told she would have to appear at the GA 9 Court House on that date and time. She stated she understood. Nothing further.
